

CURRICULUM VITAE JEFFREY R. GOODE, P.E.

Area of Specialization

Electrical Engineering

Background and Professional Experience

Jeff Goode obtained a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering at California State University-Sacramento. Mr. Goode has had experience in bid estimate preparations, contract administration, budget and cost analysis and supervision of construction and engineering personnel. Mr. Goode's engineering background includes preparation of design installation drawings for power, lighting, instrumentation, fire alarms, energy management, paging and security. He has performed troubleshooting and repairs of complex control systems, prepared and implemented plant start-up procedures and testing. In addition, Mr. Goode has conducted forensic investigations in the fire and construction areas.

Mr. Goode's work experience includes:

- Field engineering for PG & E Diablo Canyon Nuclear Power Plant
- Project manager for pumping stations for Central Arizona Water projects
- Project manager for high voltage lines for Central Arizona Water projects
- Project manager for installation of new facility for Union Chemical
- Design and supervision for energy management of a new 5,000 bed facility at David Grant Hospital at Travis Air Force Base
- Design and supervision for electrical construction
- Start-up systems of a new fully automated jail in Alameda, CA
- Technical support for a legal defense against an electrical construction claim
- Preparation of a construction claim on behalf of insurance company
- Working as a journeyman electrician

Current work experience includes:

- Consultation on electrical engineering matters for various companies
- Preparation of change order proposals for electric company
- Construction management consultation
- Claims consultation
- Forensic investigations including deposition and trial testimony

Professional Affiliations

California Professional Certificate #E 13660
National Society of Professional Engineers

Goode, Jeff.CV.doc rev. 9/24/99